

The project receives funding from the European Union

SEMINAR PROGRAMME

Can transnational collective agreements allow for negotiating approximation of work standards in multinational corporations in the EU

Gdańsk, 25-26.02.2021

BHP hall

Hybrid

working languages: Polish, English

Thursday, 25.02.2021 r.

10.30 – 11.00	Registration of participants present at the BHP hall Participants log-in
11.00 – 11.15	Opening of the Seminar: (tbc)
11.15 – 11.25	Presentation of the Programme and rules of the meeting – moderators: Barbara Surdykowska and Sławomir Adamczyk; experts of NSZZ „Solidarność” National Commission
11.25 – 11.45	Introduction to the TCA topic - Barbara Surdykowska , lawyer
11.45 – 12.05	„TCA as a restructuring tool” – online lecture based on the presentation: dr Volker Telljohann, Institute for Economic and Social Research IRES, Bologna , socioeconomist
12.05- 12.25	„The dynamics of the TCA development” – online lecture based on the presentation: dr Udo Rehfeldt, Institute for Economic and Social Research IRES, Paris , socioeconomist
12.25 – 12.40	Discussion –moderated by Sławomir Adamczyk
12.40 – 13.45	Lunch Break
13.45 – 14.05	“TCA and the hardening of soft law” – online lecture based on the presentation: prof. Beryl ter Haar, Leiden University; Warsaw University , lawyer
14.05 – 14.25	„European Works Councils as a platform of support for TCAs” – presentation of the report prepared within the project implemented by the NSZZ „Solidarność” and CISL: dr Jan Czarzasty, Warsaw School of Economics (SGH) , socioeconomist
14.25 – 14.40	Discussion –moderated by Barbara Surdykowska
14.40 – 14.55	Coffee Break
14.55 – 15.40	Panel of practitioners: "Will TCAs allow for negotiating approximation of work standards in transnational corporations in the EU? Which conditions may be conducive to and which are the barriers?": Moderators Eugeniusz Formajster – ERZ Pflejder; Małgorzata Calińska -; Przedstawiciel VOLKSWAGENA; Zbyszek Sikorski - Sekr. Spoż.(tbc)
15.40 – 15.50	Summary and conclusion of the first day -moderators
19.30	Dinner for stationary participants

The project receives funding from the European Union

Friday 25.02.2021 r.

09.45 – 10.00 up to 10.00 10.00 – 10.10	Login of participants, Registration of stationary participants Introduction to the second day - moderators
10.10 - 10.30	„Legal aspects of the conclusion and functioning of the TCA” – lecture based on the presentation: prof. Łukasz Pisarczyk, Warsaw University, lawyer
10.30 - 10.50	“Alternative paths to make TCAs more effective” prof. Auriane Lamine, Université catholique de Louvain (UCL), lawyer
10.50 - 11.00	„Enforcement of the TCA in the context of industrial disputes” – presentation: Katarzyna Wieczorek, Warsaw University, lawyer
11.00 - 11.10	„Pursuing claims against TCA under national law” – presentation: Anna Boguska, Warsaw University, lawyer
11.10 - 11.25	Discussion –moderated by Sławomir Adamczyk
11.25 - 11.40	Coffee break
11.40 - 12.00	“Implementation and monitoring of TCAs”– online lecture based on the presentation: prof. Reingard Zimmer, Berlin School of Economics and Law, lawyer
12.00 - 12.20	„New areas of collective bargaining and the right to privacy” - lecture based on the presentation: dr Marcin Wujczyk, Jagiellonian University in Cracow, lawyer
12.20 – 13.00	Panel discussion: “The importance of collective bargaining at different levels –projection for the future” prof. Łukasz Pisarczyk; dr Jan Czarzasty; Monika Sobiech; Mirosław Miara
13.00 - 13.15	Final remarks Closing of the seminar
13.15	Lunch for stationary participants